Liquor policy case: No relief for Sisodia as HC rejects bail

Had sought bail in ED, CBI cases against him

MALAVIKA PRASAD New Delhi, May 21

OBSERVING THAT HE is 'an influential person within the power corridors of Delhi government'and the 'possibility of ernment'and the 'possibility of tampering with evidence' can-not be ruled out, the Delhi High Court Tuesday rejected AAPleader and former Deputy Chief Minister Manish Siso-

Chief Minister Manish Siso-dia's applications for bail in the Delhi excise policy cases being investigated by the ED and CBL. Sisodia has been in custody since his arrest by the CBI in February 2023 and by the ED the next month. The single-judge bench of Justice Swarana Kanta Sharma – a detailed copy, of the judgment is copy of the judgment is awaited — said, 'Case at hand involves grave misuse of power and breach of public trust by department, it said.

'This deceptive act was a calculated move to create an illusion that the excise policy was formed after careful consideration of feedback received from the public but in reality the feedback was manufactured to justify Sisodia's decision to formulate the policy. In benefit a few indipolicy... to benefit a few indi-viduals, it said. The 'integrity of the decision making process' with respect to the process' with respect to the policy was 'compromised' and the public's voice was ren-dered moot, it said. "Such action perpetuates a cycle of deceit and manipula-tion within the corridors of power, setting a dangerous precedent for future policy making endeavours', it said. The practice of portraying poli-cies having widespread public cies naving widespread public support through fake responses, the bench said, is 'deeply deceptive'. It said the 'possibility of tampering with evidence' if Sisodia is released on bail cannot be ruled out. "The petition mentions that he (Sisodia) is AAP's senior leader. Thus, he is an influential person of Delhi government,' it said. On the SC's October 30, 2023 order, the bench observed that the SC's directions entitle Sisodia to file fresh bail application in case he feels that trial has not profeels that trial has not pro-ceeded in the case 'but adjudi-cation of the application has to be based on the merits with an additional consideration of delay in trial.' 'It was not laid down (bythe SC) that the appli-cant (Sisodia) will be entitled to grant of bail solely on the ground of delay in trial,'it said. 'This court holds that SC

'This court holds that SC had clearly mentioned that the had clearly mentioned that the courts hearing (Sisodia's) bail applications will not be influenced by previous orders of rejection of bail...which means that this (High) Court can, on its own, independently apply its mind to the facts of the case and decide the bail application accordingly. This court holds that accepting arguments of senior counsel for the applisenior counsel for the appli-cant – that this court cannot go beyond the observations made by the SC – is meritless since SC has itself clarified that all fac-tual and legal issues are left open, the bench said. It also observed it was not

It also observed it was not the fault of the ED, CBI or trial court that there have been 'multiple accused persons, delay by accused persons in delay by accused persons in joining the investigation 'given that the conspiracy spreads over many states with one interrogation leading to another.

'No fault can be found by ED, CBI that there were volu-minous records found in the investigation,'it said.
